

The Charles Blow Show

Visual identity & usage for partners.

at a glance.

What it is

The Charles Blow Show is a daily, independent political-media show – incisive analysis of race, politics, and power in America, in conversation. Two short segments a day, a companion site, and a daily newsletter. The look should feel like a serious independent newsroom a person actually wants to read: editorial, not cable-news loud; confident, not cold.

THE LINES (USE VERBATIM)

Race, politics & power in America – in conversation.

PRIMARY LINE

The smartest seat at the table – every day.

SOCIAL / SPOKEN

We leave you equipped, not anxious. Every day ends on “What now?”

Don'ts

- Don't recolor the mark outside the palette.
 - Don't stretch, rotate, or skew it.
 - Don't add shadows or gradients to the letters.
 - Don't place the wordmark on a busy photo without a scrim.
 - Don't recolor the azure byline rule – it's the signature.

	Paper #FBFAF6	Primary background (warm white)
	Surface #FFFFFF	Cards, raised panels
	Ink #14161D	Primary text, dark surfaces, nav
	Muted #6C7077	Metadata, captions
	Line #E7E3D9	Hairline dividers & borders
	Azure #0090CC	Primary accent — links, eyebrows, CTAs
	Azure Bright #00B2F4	Signature pop — dot, live, focus, rule
	Azure Dark #0A6A94	Accent hover / pressed
	Azure Tint #E1F3FD	Soft accent backgrounds, badges

- Azure is a spice, not a sauce — small doses: eyebrows, the live dot, focus, one primary button per view.
- Bright #00B2F4 is too light for text on paper — use it for fills, dots, rules; use Azure #0090CC for links & labels.
- Body text is Ink on Paper; never azure on paper for long copy. Maintain WCAG AA contrast.

voice & applications.

Verbal identity

Plainspoken & precise.

Short, declarative. Say the quiet part.

Warm authority.

Smart friend at the table, not a lecturer.

Action-oriented.

End on "What now?" — equip, don't alarm.
